LEWIS ARUNDEL; or, the Railroad of Life the author of Frank Farleigh. Complete in one vol.

This is a Daguerrectorye view of life, taken in all its phises, so faithful and true as to startle us with 'the counteriest semblance' (London Literary Garette.

This is truly a great romance! The author of 'Frank Farleigh,' which has had an unprecedented sale among modern novels, has, in the present work, given us a master-bace, the glowing and life-like features of which will be recognized as presenting one of the finest pictures of society extant."

The foregoing BONDS are in each case for $1,000, EX-CEPTING the CITY of MADISON; which are for $500, principal and interest in all cases payable semi-annually in New-York.

The RAILROAD BONDS are secured in the most ample manner by Mortgage or Deed of Trust, to some known and responsible citizen of New-York, with power, in case of default, to enter and sell each line, with all equipments. ac., to raise money to pay amount of interest or principal.

The CHTY and COUNTY BONDS are issued, in each case, by virtue of Special Acts of the proper Legislature, granting full power for that purpose, and on a direct vote of the people interested, that vote being largely in favor of their usue.

The laws under which these Bonds are created, require the proper authorities to make a SPECIAL LEVY of TAXES to be SET APART exclusively for the purpose of meeting the accruing interest, and gradually to reimburse the purposition which can be enforced through the Courts of Law, should it become necessary.
